The Road toward 19 September

The Global Compact on Responsibility-Sharing for Refugees
Context and Trends
Internally displaced persons
40.8 million

Refugees
21.3 million

Stateless people
10 million

65.3 million forcibly displaced people worldwide
Refugees Worldwide

54% increase since 2011

24 persons displaced per minute
This is not a crisis of numbers, but a crisis of solidarity

– Ban Ki Moon

21.3 million refugees

7.4 billion people
The Way Forward
Legal Framework already in place

Tried and tested tools

Predictable response now needed
In Safety and Dignity: Addressing Large Movements of Refugees and Migrants

Report of the Secretary-General

9 May 2016

refugeesmigrants.un.org
Global Compact

Comprehensive Refugee Response Plan

Opportunity to address challenges
Re-affirming Institution of Asylum
Addressing Root Causes
Comprehensive Approaches
Emergency Response

Reception

Registration (specific needs, Documentation)
Essential Needs

Shelter

Food

Healthcare
Humanitarian Financing

National service providers

National institutions

Lending Schemes
Efficient delivery of assistance

Community-based

Civil society
Self reliance

Legal stay

Host communities
Solutions
Voluntary Repatriation

Right to return

Support countries of origin

Reconciliation
Interim Solutions

Human Capital

Skills
Local Solutions

Legal status
Admission Pathways

Resettlement

Regular migration channels
What is new?
Reaffirm principles

Comprehensive response

Whole of society